PROLOGUE

As we, the class of 1963, first stepped into the labyrinth of corridors on September 10, 1959, we felt as if we might never become accustomed to the many new faces of students and teachers which surrounded us on every side. However, we soon became a part of C.H.L.S., where we would spend many hours in the next four years of our life. Here in this yearbook, we have tried to re-live the highlights of our treasured high school days so that they may never fade from our memories.

CLASS POEM

We stood within a valley,
Awed by the mountain's height;
Yet unafraid to climb it,
Upheld by knowledge, right.

We came to rushing water,
Awed by its reaches wide;
Yet unafraid to ford it,
By courage fortified.

We came to barren deserts,
Awed by the wasteland dry;
Yet unafraid to cross it,
With hope, our heads held high.

Still challenge lies before us,
Help us, God, we pray;
That unafraid to face it,
We'll conquer each new day.

MEMORIES ARE MADE OF THIS:

As we look back on our past years at high school, we realize that we can never forget the wonderful times experienced at Cambridge High and Latin.

When we first entered C.H.L.S., we were filled with anxiety, not knowing what to expect from either the faculty or the students. Our anxiety was soon dispelled, however, by a warm feeling of friendliness. Mr. Sheehan, our principal, Miss Smith, then dean of freshman girls now retired, Mr. Conlon, then dean of freshman boys now elevated to dean of junior boys, and all of our teachers were very helpful. The students were enthusiastic in their friendliness towards us. There were many extra-curricular activities available to us. The initiation of the Girls' Athletic Association provided amusement for the whole school. The girls were dressed in clothes turned inside out and worn backwards, hosed in unmatched socks and shoes, and they sported many tiny braids on their heads. We attended our first Rindge-Latin Thanksgiving Day Football Game in order to cheer our team to victory. We tied Rindge, however, six to six. Our representatives to Student Council that year were Russell Desmarais and Geraldine Zagarella.

Our sophomore year began with an invitation to our boys with high marks and good character to join the Key Club, which is devoted to service to the school. The Key Club working with the Student Council, of whom our representatives for that year were Tina Chinappi, Russell Desmarais, and Joseph Purcell sponsored a successful dance, held at the Cambridge Y.W.C.A. Miss Walsh and Mr. Murphy as our deans aided us with our study problems. At the end of our sophomore year we were proud to learn that our Dramatic Club, under the leadership of Mr. Guest, had received a rating of "excellent" at the New England Drama Festival.

As we entered our junior year, all of the girls with honor roll marks were invited to join the K. B. Club, which sponsors an annual semi-formal dance in the month of February to raise money for scholarships. The impressive initiation took place at the Elks Lodge in Cambridge. Miss Whalen and Mr. Murphy were our deans that year. We were represented in Student Council by Tina Chinappi, Russell Desmarais, Patricia Manning, and Geraldine Zagarella. Claire Budwitis was chosen chairman of the Ring Committee.

We were seniors, upper classmen, respected by the entire school. Twenty-seven of our classmates were chosen to become members of the National Honor Society. Esther Purpel was elected their president. In October our class enjoyed School and Commerce Day, sponsored by the Cambridge Chamber of Commerce. James Karon was chosen president of the Key Club, and Janice Campbell was chosen president of the K. B. Club. Senior class elections were held and we found Joe Sico as our president, Mary Ann Percoco as vice-president, Patricia Manning as secretary, and Charles Kline as treasurer. Our prom committee members were elected. Claire Budwitis and Patricia Vargas were chosen co-editors of the yearbook. We were measured for our caps and gowns. Our senior representatives to the Student Council were: Roy Creedon, Tina Chinappi, Russell Desmarais, Patricia Manning, Joe Purcell, and Geraldine Zagarella. As our thoughts turned toward the future, Miss Lynch and Mr. Frisoli guided us in our choice of vocations. Our prom was a glorious success. We experienced class day; then Graduation Day arrived. Our four years of high school were completed. We have nothing left now except our memories.

Class Will

We, the students of this year's class,
As out of Latin's gates we pass,
Do here-by will and leave behind
All these gifts which will long remind
All the pupils and teachers, too,
Of those who now must bid "adieu".

To Mr. Sheehan, a tape of his rule—
"Remember, no loitering after school!"
To the office girls, who make the school run,
A "thank-you" for a job well-done.
To deans and masters, lads and lassies
Who'll always be on time for classes.
To the English teachers we leave all the flaws
We made in constructing a dependent clause.
To the Business teachers, true and loyal
We'd like to leave a brand-new Royal.
To the Language teachers we leave defenses
Against their pupils' mixed-up tenses.
To the Latin teachers, a gift that's fine
A Bust of Lucius Cataline.
To the Math teachers, who made our minds flex
We leave a "pi" and a "google-plex".
To our Music teachers, it could be worse—
A recording of "The Witch's Curse".
To the "Home Ec" folks, who bake those cookies
We leave a class of unskilled rookies.
To the Art teachers our love we show
By leaving a portrait of Vincent Van Gogh.
To our History teachers, who taught us well
We leave the crack in the Liberty Bell.

To Mr. Haley, whose movies we like
We wish to leave a brand-new "mike".
To Mr. Guest, with his "Drama Days"—
A copy of "This Year's Best Plays".
To our Science teachers we leave many queries
Regarding all their unproven theories.
To all the clubs, a gift real funny—
A bank-account without any money.
To the athletes who tried to win every game
We leave you a place in the "Sports Hall of Fame".
To the lunchroom staff we leave a book
Aptly entitled, "How to Cook".
To the incoming Freshmen we're happy to leave
All of the answers up our sleeve.
To all the Sophomores, each one alike
We wish you luck on your upward hike.
To the Junior Class, in their Senior race
An uncontested second place.
We've gone through our gifts on this happy day
Given a gift to each one away,
Except for the Seniors—
Now good-bye and "amen"!
Believe us, we wouldn't
Go through it again!

SPORTS

R. D. MATTEO

GIRLS' SENIOR BASKETBALL

Girls' Basketball

Because of the number of girls who have come out for the team this year, there is reason to believe the girls will equal if not surpass the outstanding record of last season. Determination and high spirits will help make up for the loss of last year's varsity players. The senior varsity players for the season of 1962-1963 will consist of Marie Fitzgerald, Kathy Galligan, Irene Kelley, Ingrid Naef, Charlotte Simmons, Ann Tierney, Jo-Ann Turner, Donna Kenny and Debbie Lynch.

The members of the basketball team would like to thank Miss Hyde and Miss George for their patience and guidance.

Cheerleaders

CHEERLEADERS

First row, left to right: Jo-Ann Turner, Marie Fitzgerald, Ann Tierney, Co-Captain, Ann Riley, Co-Captain, Judith Graves, Frances Young. Second

BOYS' BASKETBALL TEAM

Boys' Basketball Team

Versatility, aggressiveness, and sparkling play of defense will be the key to the 1962-1963 basketball team.

Although the team lost eight lettermen from last year's squad and Co-Captain Roger Dottin to an injury, it hopes to equal and better last season's 11-9 record under Coach Lyon's fine guidance.

CROSS COUNTRY TEAM

Cross Country Team

The Latin harriers enjoyed a moderately successful season this year, defeating both Malden Catholic and Brookline High Schools by a score of 25-36. Although we defeated Rindge in a practice meet, that team proved to be just a little too fast for us in Metropolitan League competition. We herewith salute our fellow Cantabs who went on to capture the League's title.

We do not attribute our success to any one outstanding runner, but rather to the team's strength in depth. We had seven runners who consistently ran the 2.7 mile course under 14 minutes.

The seniors now wish to thank sincerely Coach Joseph McDavitt for his assistance and patience, and also to wish next year's team the success which they seem destined to attain.

GOLF TEAM

Golf Team

This past year, the Golf Team had a fairly successful season. The boys displayed great form against the opposing teams and also showed much enthusiasm. The returning lettermen are Richard Conway, William Killion, and John Corcoran.

The team would like to thank Mr. Landigan for his skillful coaching and would like to wish the future teams great success.

SWIMMING TEAM

Swimming Team

After an early win at the start of the season this year, last year's disappointing moments were forgotten. The Cambridge Latin team defeated the Boston Latin team by a wide margin and was a close runner-up to Catholic Memorial. We attribute our win to new spirit and a larger squad. Only four lettermen returned: Ted Brewster, Dick Brown, Co-Capt., Andy Murphy, and Manager John Havranick. The support of our team rests chiefly upon the lower classmen who have thus far been doing a highly commendable job. With the guidance of our coach, Mr. Kenny, we hope for a highly successful season.

TENNIS TEAM

Howard Hughes, Co-Captain, Robert Roulston.

Second row, left to right: Paul Sullivan, Roland
Haynes, Mr. Alan Cohen, Faculty Advisor.

Tennis Team

The Tennis Team is looking forward to an excellent year. Our hopes are based mainly on the skill of returning lettermen: Howard Hughes, Co-Captain; Richard Olken, Co-Captain; Paul Sullivan, Dana Gallup, and Robert Roulston. Our biggest setback is the loss of 1962's top players: Eric Isen and Henry Frisch to Harvard University. With some added support from the student body, the Tennis Team may anticipate having a very fine season.

TRACK TEAM

Second row, left to right: Stuart Beaton, Kenneth

Hughes, Frank Robinson, Samuel Merchant, Michael Plummer, Daniel Hayes, Arthur Costa, William Peterson, Franklin Jackson, Wesley Taylor, Arthur McIntyre.

Track Team

The 1962 Track Team enjoyed the most successful season of any Latin team in the past decade, losing only one meet to a championship Milton team. The team's sprint relay of Turner, Soones, Gittens, and Salus was undefeated in Met League competition; while our two mile relay team of Wilson, Taylor, Walsh, and Newman was outstanding at the Belmont State Relay Carnival. The most encouraging sign about these successes is the fact that the nucleus of the squad was made up of underclassmen.

The team is looking forward to a very successful season under the guidance of our new coach, Mr. Joseph McDavitt.

This year's Hockey Team, facing the major problem of inexperience, has done surprisingly well in its first preseason game. The team scrimmaged a strong New Prep Hockey team and lost only two to one.

Mr. Fitzgerald, our excellent coach, is working very hard to replace the team scoring ability which he lost through graduation. The team defense, as a whole, is excellent and if the lack of scoring power can be overcome, the team should finish reasonably high in the league.

Football Team

This year's football team was an improvement over teams of the past few years, even though it was lacking in team depth. Our record of two wins, six losses does not give a true picture of the team. Several times throughout the season, key players were missing from the lineup because of injuries. We feel that if these players had been able to play, the team would have done much better in the games they missed. Since there are only a few senior members whom we shall lose, we believe next year's team will have a fine season under Captain-elect Dana Gallop.

We wish to thank Head Coach John Noble, Coach Dick York, Coach Armand Carvielo, and Coach John Campbell for the time and effort they spent with us.

Epilogue

Our Freshman year merged into our Sophomore year, then into the Junior year, and finally into the one we had been waiting for — our Senior and final year. It seems incredible that we have already held the privileges and prestige that belong to the Seniors alone. Now as we stand upon the threshold of new and strange adventures, we pause to look back at these four years of our high school life. Here we have found new friends, tasted something of the delight of learning, and have learned new truth and beauty. Regretful at having to leave her now, we are grateful for what dear C. H. L. S. has given to us.
